

JAMES WATT, C. S.

Open Lecture on Christian Science Set

The effectiveness of prayer in solving problems of everyday living will be the topic of a free, public lecture on Christian Science to be delivered by James Watt on Tuesday, March 6, in the First Church of Christ Scientist, 527 South Broadway, Redondo Beach, at 8 p.m.

Member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, Watt will speak on the subject of "Christian Science: The Science of Effective Prayer."

Watt is a resident of Washington, D.C. He served during World War II as a chaplain in the United States Army, attaining the rank of major. He is a former manager of the Washington, D.C. office of Christian Science Committee on Publication.

A graduate of the Illinois Institute of Technology, he was formerly associated with various engineering companies in the United States and abroad.

Later he was director of research and western manager for the Advertising Checking Bureau, with headquarters in Chicago.

Since 1942 he has devoted his full time to the practice of Christian Science healing and to the service of the Christian Science organization.

This lecture will be radiocast over Station KFWE, 980 kilocycles, Tuesday, March 6 at 8 p.m.

C. D. A. Court Plans Flood Benefit Sale

Members of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, held a "White Elephant Sale" this week, to benefit victims of the recent flood.

No social events are scheduled during the Lenten season, however, the study club chairman, led a round table discussion on a religious topic, and Mrs. William Healy reviewed "Forty Steps to Easter" by Msgr. T. Coogan.

Mrs. John McVey was hostess to other officers of the court recently at an executive board meeting at her home, 920 Kornblum.

A valentine party was staged by members of the court recently at Nativity parish hall.

Latin Dance Lures Ladies

Essie Sherman, Norma Dobrick, Nadine Nickol, and Ladeene Chamberlain, of Torrance, have decided to go Latin. Every Wednesday night at 8:30 p.m., they steal away to the Hollywood Riviera club.

There to the background of exotic rhythms and muttered counts of one, two, and three, they are learning the tango, mambo, and other saccharine-twisting dances. Their instructor in the art of south-of-the-border dance is Melvin Kaiser.
